

GRADATIM

1980

For his efforts to make Sacred Heart College grow
to what it is now,
for his unique ability to be comfortable with people
from all walks of life and at the same time make all these people feel equally comfortable.

Sacred Heart College

GRADATIM — 1980

is dedicated to:

Mr. John J. Henry
A man who left a very special mark
on campus and especially in our hearts.

The "Heartbeat" Of An Individual
Indicates Life.
To Hear One's Heartbeat
One Must Listen Closely And Attentively.
The Heartsounds Tell
Of The Person's Condition;
They Speak Of Joy, Health, Hurt, Need —
True Signs Of Wonder.

Each Of Us Here At
Sacred Heart College
Has A "Heart-Message".
It Is Important That We
Listen Closely
To The Secrets Of Our Hearts
And Share Our Life
Messages
With Each Other.

In Harmony,
To The Rhythm Of Nature,
Let Us Sound Off
Our Hopes For Life.
Let Us Respond To Life.

Dear Members of the Sacred Heart College Family,

It has truly been a great year at Sacred Heart College! We have all witnessed the dramatic changes taking place on our campus-- changes brought about by a deep commitment to the college on the part of the students, faculty, staff, administration, and Board of Trustees. When the chips were down, we discovered our wealth of friends.

I commend you all for your faith in and love for all that Sacred Heart College stands for; and, believe me, we do stand for academic excellence rooted in a deep faith in God and a love for our neighbor.

This year we especially welcome our Night College students and truly pray that they come to the true realization of their adopted slogan, "I get smart at Sacred Heart."

God go with you as you depart and may He hold you safe in His love. Remember with fondness your alma mater!

God love you,

Sister Mary Michel Boulus, R.S.M.

Graduation Practice.

Can you tell they're false?

Anybody got an alkaseltzer?

How do you spell relief?

Let me do that!

My name has to be there somewhere!!

It's so nice to get up early!

What kind of pizza am I going to get??

I heard that!

Graduation Day!
